Elizabeth Strout's "Abide with Me" is once again set in a small, lonely area of northern New England. In the late 1950s, in a small town in Maine, not too far from Shirley Falls, where "Amy and Isabelle" was situated, is where Tyler Caskey and his wife have come to serve.

Abide with Me by Elizabeth Strout - Goodreads

Elizabeth Strout tells Tyler Caskey's multilayered story with her usual exquisite writing. She often uses nature as metaphor as she sets each scene. Her descriptions of the sky, clouds and trees are as vivid as paintings and as beautiful as poetry. This was my third reading of ABIDE WITH ME, and the story gets only more powerful.
